B4RB Recumbent Bike

Endurance by Body-Solid's brand new B4RB Recumbent Bike is commercial-rated and the perfect bike for anyone looking to get a high-powered cardio workout. Many enthusiasts choose recumbent bikes for their comfortable, reclined seating design and the B4RB Recumbent Bike is no exception. An ergonomic design distributes the rider's weight comfortably. The mesh seat back keeps your body cool during intense workouts. The wide walkthrough design provides easy access for any sized user and the adjustable seat pad ensures maximum comfort through even the most strenuous of cardio workouts. With a small footprint, the Endurance B4RB Recumbent Bike is the perfect cardio addition to any commercial workout facility or home workout space.
